

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Watchung resident Dorothy Braun, affectionately known as "Dot" to all, began her career at Watchung Hills Regional High School 29 years ago; and

WHEREAS, Dot started in the Special Services Department, first as an aide, then as an Administrative Assistant, and lastly as an Executive Assistant to the Superintendent; and

WHEREAS, while Dot's dedication to the school and its staff, students, and parents were always responsive, efficient, and overall invaluable, Dot also served the Borough of Watchung in another capacity, as an un-official "liaison" to the Governing Body; and

WHEREAS, Dot was always available to answer questions, coordinate events, connect us to the proper source, and to make sure we were always informed of issues or concerns that the Mayor and Council should be aware of; and

WHEREAS, Dot will certainly be missed, and the Watchung Governing Body is honored to thank their resident for her years of loyalty and commitment to the students and the families of this Borough.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MAYOR STEPHEN K. POTE, hereby proclaim Sunday, January 26th, 2014 as in the Borough of Watchung and, on behalf of its residents, extend to Dot best wishes for continued good health and happiness as she begins this next chapter of her life.

Date: January 26, 2014

Stephen K. Pote, Mayor
