UNFINISHED BUSINESS:

The Commission discussed the Community Picnic and the involvement of the members of the commission and volunteers. B. Jacques offered to pick up the watermelon at Somerset Farms between 10:30 & 11:00 am. At the picnic Bill planned to help out at the hot dog station. J. Pennett and C. Murphy offered to pick up the ice at Colorado Café around 11:00 am. J. Pennett offered to call Duncan Donuts and set up a pick up for the ice tea. D. Mobus will bring the coolers there to be filled between 10:30 & 11:00 am. At the picnic Dave planned to work the grill and cook the hot dogs. Mike offered to help with the BJ's order to pick up the sodas, juice and waters along with any non-perishables and help pick up the perishable items on Friday. At the picnic Mike planned to help out at the hot dog station. At the picnic Dave planned to work the grill and cook the hot dogs with the help of B. Jacques and M. Onuska. M. Weber offered to help out at the park the morning of the picnic with decorations and set up. She also planned to help out with the popcorn. Three members of the CERT Team offered to come help with the pizza and beverages, two students will be coming to help with the cookie and treat table and help with the decorations. Med Express donated and offered to run the cotton candy machine and S. Monetti offered to check out the grill and see if he can tighten it up and make a wind shield. M. Monetti will pick up the pretzels in Westfield as they don't deliver and L. Monetti will take pictures for us during the event. C. Murphy suggested having a poster made for the Movie Night and putting it up during the event. M. Weber suggested adding that refreshments will be sold for $1.00 each. D. Mobus suggested that DPW clean up the park before the event he also suggested putting out the sandwich sign to advertise the event.

L. Monetti reported that US Sports cancelled programs that were scheduled to be run at Mobus in June as they did not have a good turnout. Warren programs will run as scheduled and be available to Watchung residents.
