Dear Friends:

I am pleased to introduce the 2015 edition of the Somerset County Directory.

This is a comprehensive guide to the more than 50 County divisions and affiliated agencies that provide programs and services to County residents on a daily basis. Telephone and fax numbers, e-mail addresses and locations are listed for easy reference.

Some of the other regular features of the directory include a listing of U.S. and State representatives serving Somerset County plus information about our 21 municipalities and a listing of historical sites in each town.

For an online edition of this directory, along with other information about Somerset County, please visit www.co.somerset.nj.us. You can follow us on Facebook and Twitter too.

On behalf of the Board of Chosen Freeholders, I wish you all the best for 2015.

Sincerely,

Mark Caliguire

Somerset County is at the hub of Central New Jersey. Its 21 municipalities, which encompass 305 square miles, contain a diversity of landscape, population and development that reflects the varied lifestyles of its estimated 330,585 residents.

As one of America’s oldest counties, Somerset is steeped in colonial and Revolutionary War history. The County was established by charter on May 22, 1688, with land conveyances dating to 1651. Historic sites, monuments and buildings are found in virtually every town, preserved for future generations.

Located in the heart of the nation’s largest metropolitan area, with convenient access to New York and Philadelphia, Somerset County contains a balance between urban and suburban neighborhoods and rural countrysides. Fine residential communities, beautiful parks, excellent shopping areas, extensive farmlands, numerous historic sites and outstanding business and industry all make Somerset County a desirable place to live, work and play.

The County’s 14,200 acres of parkland include golf courses, picnic areas, hiking and bicycling trails, stables, a swimming pool, an Environmental Education Center and the County Fairgrounds, which each year hosts the Somerset County 4-H Fair. The County has preserved 8,239 acres of farmland through its Agriculture Development Program, and another 3,253 acres of greenways through the County/Municipal Open Space Partnership Grant Program.

Our educational facilities – Raritan Valley Community College and Somerset County Vocational & Technical Schools – are among the finest in the state. The college, a two-year school in Branchburg, includes a library/theater complex, a convention center and a planetarium; it also has satellite campuses in Bridgewater and Franklin.

Many boards, commissions and advisory groups help the Freeholders determine priorities and procedures in areas ranging from farmland preservation to human services delivery. Members, who serve without compensation, perform a valuable service to their community.

Environmental protection, conservation of resources, shared services and proper planning for future growth and development – all are major goals for County government. The Board of Chosen Freeholders remains dedicated to serving the residents of Somerset County and to maintaining the county’s nationwide reputation for excellence.
The Role of County Government

“What Is A Freeholder?”

Somerset County is governed and managed by a Board of Chosen Freeholders. The board consists of five members; one or two are elected each year from the County at large to serve three-year terms.

New Jersey is the only state where elected county officials are called “freeholders.” Most other states elect a county commission or county council. The term “freeholder” is a carryover from colonial days, when only property owners - then known as freeholders - were entitled to vote, and one freeholder represented each municipality. Eventually, the number of freeholders in each county was reduced by statute and is now determined by referendum, and cannot exceed nine members.

Freeholders elect from among themselves a director who conducts their meetings. Each Freeholder in Somerset County chairs a standing committee: Human Services, Finance and Administrative Services, Public Works and Public Health & Safety. The Freeholder Director and County Administrator are ex-officio members of each committee.

The position of Freeholder is considered part-time, although due to the complexity of County government today, an increasing amount of time is spent by these elected officials on County business.

The Freeholders employ a full-time County Administrator who manages the day-to-day operations of County government. The Clerk of the Board of Freeholders oversees the work of their offices. Department heads are appointed in accordance with statute and by resolution of the board. Somerset County currently has 1,125 full-time employees and 95 part-time employees in 52 divisions.

Among the many essential services provided by Somerset County government are higher education, road and bridge maintenance, curbside recycling, parks and recreation, employment training, social services, recording of deeds and wills and much more.

SOMERSET COUNTY GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS

There are four major departments within Somerset County government as established by the Board of Freeholders. Each consists of various divisions. These departments report to the County Administrator, who reports to the Board of Freeholders. The Clerk of the Board and County Counsel also report directly to the Freeholders.

The four departments, their directors and the divisions reporting to them are listed below, along with the divisions that report directly to the County Administrator. A number of autonomous agencies, such as the Library and Park Commission, do not come under the purview of these departments.

individuals. The Wellness Program offers an assortment of opportunities at senior centers and other locations countywide, including Water Exercise, Healthy Bones, Yoga, Tai Chi, Zumba and more. The Eldercare Services Unit has an overarching goal of linking individuals to the programs and services needed to remain independent and active in the community. Our Eldercare Services and the Special Services Unit offer information and assistance, benefits screening, comprehensive assessment, care coordination, and options-counseling services. Additional services include the Plan Ahead Project, which guides people on how to organize important documents; Telephone Reassurance, which provides a daily check on frail, homebound elders; family caregiving support, education and respite type services; and the State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP), which assists with billing problems for doctors, programs or insurance companies, including Medicare-D Prescription Program. The unit also coordinates the Jersey Assistance for Community Caregiving Program (JACC) which assists financially and clinically eligible people age 60 and above with services to assist them to remain living independently in the community; Veterans’ Administration Home-and Community-Based Services Program provides access to community-based long-term care services to eligible veterans and Project LifeSaver through an electronic tracking device which provides support and security to individuals caring for loved ones who are at risk of wandering. Our Disability Services Unit staff works to establish a comprehensive program whose objective is to gain equality, opportunity and security for all people with disabilities through information and referral, outreach, advocacy and legislation. The team coordinates the Personal Assistance Services Program (PASP) which empowers persons with disabilities to maintain their independence in the community. Disability Services staff also works with county officials to maintain compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Barrier Free Code in their resolve to ensure accessibility to all County buildings and programs. The Greater Raritan Workforce Investment Board is a public/private partnership that sets workforce policy to assist businesses and individuals throughout Hunterdon and Somerset counties. The board is made up of representatives from local business, labor, education and community organizations. Board members oversee local One Stop centers in Somerville and Flemington while directing the use of approximately $3 million in federal and state training funds to meet local employer and job seeker needs. The board is committed to carrying out its work with several strategic priorities in mind:

- Focus on workforce sector strategies consistent with state economic planning.
- Build alliances with partners, including those in education.
- Coordinate outreach to the business community.
- Emphasize career paths versus simply employment.
- Recognize the role that transportation plays in employment.

Rich Palumbo, PESS Supervisor/908-231-6402

Psychiatric Emergency Screening Services program (PESS) provides crisis intervention services: screening for voluntary and involuntary hospitalization, mobile outreach, linkage to appropriate community resources, information and referrals. Counseling, emergency psychiatric evaluations, medication evaluations and consultation services also are available. Crisis hotline is answered by Certified Screeners to relieve a patient’s distress and prevent psychiatric hospitalization through the use of clinical assessment, crisis intervention counseling, and the formulation of alternative treatment plans. If the nature of the call... indicates that a face-to-face session with a PESS clinician is appropriate, arrangements will be made for the caller to visit PESS or a mobile outreach team at an alternate location. Access to the program is through RWJUH-Somerset Emergency Services at RWJUH-Somerset, where individuals will be seen by a triage nurse and medically cleared by the ER physician before being evaluated by a PESS clinician.

Crisis Hotline: (908) 526-4100 (Available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week)

Location: Psychiatric Emergency Screening Service, Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital-Somerset, 110 Rehill Avenue, Somerville, NJ 08876

SOMERSET COUNTY
GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENTS

There are four major departments within Somerset County government as established by the Board of Freeholders. Each consists of various divisions. These departments report to the County Administrator, who reports to the Board of Freeholders. The Clerk of the Board and County Counsel also report directly to the Freeholders.

The four departments, their directors and the divisions reporting to them are listed below, along with the divisions that report directly to the County Administrator. A number of autonomous agencies, such as the Library and Park Commission, do not come under the purview of these departments.

“What Is A Freeholder?”

Somerset County is governed and managed by a Board of Chosen Freeholders. The board consists of five members; one or two are elected each year from the County at large to serve three-year terms.

New Jersey is the only state where elected county officials are called “freeholders.” Most other states elect a county commission or county council. The term “freeholder” is a carryover from colonial days, when only property owners - then known as freeholders - were entitled to vote, and one freeholder represented each municipality. Eventually, the number of freeholders in each county was reduced by statute and is now determined by referendum, and cannot exceed nine members.

Freeholders elect from among themselves a director who conducts their meetings. Each Freeholder in Somerset County chairs a standing committee: Human Services, Finance and Administrative Services, Public Works and Public Health & Safety. The Freeholder Director and County Administrator are ex-officio members of each committee.

The position of Freeholder is considered part-time, although due to the complexity of County government today, an increasing amount of time is spent by these elected officials on County business.

The Freeholders employ a full-time County Administrator who manages the day-to-day operations of County government. The Clerk of the Board of Freeholders oversees the work of their offices. Department heads are appointed in accordance with statute and by resolution of the board. Somerset County currently has 1,125 full-time employees and 95 part-time employees in 52 divisions.

Among the many essential services provided by Somerset County government are higher education, road and bridge maintenance, curbside recycling, parks and recreation, employment training, social services, recording of deeds and wills and much more.

SOMERSET COUNTY - 2015

Somerset County is at the hub of Central New Jersey. Its 21 municipalities, which encompass 305 square miles, contain a diversity of landscape, population and development that reflects the varied lifestyles of its estimated 330,585 residents.

As one of America’s oldest counties, Somerset is steeped in colonial and Revolutionary War history. The County was established by charter on May 22, 1688, with land conveyances dating to 1651. Historic sites, monuments and buildings are found in virtually every town, preserved for future generations.

Located in the heart of the nation’s largest metropolitan area, with convenient access to New York and Philadelphia, Somerset County contains a balance between urban and suburban neighborhoods and rural countrysides. Fine residential communities, beautiful parks, excellent shopping areas, extensive farmlands, numerous historic sites and outstanding business and industry all make Somerset County a desirable place to live, work and play.

The County’s 14,200 acres of parkland include golf courses, picnic areas, hiking and bicycling trails, stables, a swimming pool, an Environmental Education Center and the County Fairgrounds, which each year hosts the Somerset County 4-H Fair. The County has preserved 8,239 acres of farmland through its Agriculture Development Program, and another 3,253 acres of greenways through the County/Municipal Open Space Partnership Grant Program.

Our educational facilities – Raritan Valley Community College and Somerset County Vocational & Technical Schools – are among the finest in the state. The college, a two-year school in Branchburg, includes a library/theater complex, a convention center and a planetarium; it also has satellite campuses in Bridgewater and Franklin.

Many boards, commissions and advisory groups help the Freeholders determine priorities and procedures in areas ranging from farmland preservation to human services delivery. Members, who serve without compensation, perform a valuable service to their community.

Environmental protection, conservation of resources, shared services and proper planning for future growth and development – all are major goals for County government. The Board of Chosen Freeholders remains dedicated to serving the residents of Somerset County and to maintaining the county’s nationwide reputation for excellence.

Message from the Freeholder Director

Dear Friends:

I am pleased to introduce the 2015 edition of the Somerset County Directory.

This is a comprehensive guide to the more than 50 County divisions and affiliated agencies that provide programs and services to County residents on a daily basis. Telephone and fax numbers, e-mail addresses and locations are listed for easy reference.

Some of the other regular features of the directory include a listing of U.S. and State representatives serving Somerset County plus information about our 21 municipalities and a listing of historical sites in each town.

For an online edition of this directory, along with other information about Somerset County, please visit www.co.somerset.nj.us. You can follow us on Facebook and Twitter too.

On behalf of the Board of Chosen Freeholders, I wish you all the best for 2015.

Sincerely,

Mark Caliguire
