At the Texier Museum, 10 Mountain Blvd, Watchung

Texier House

Civil War Reenactment

Bob Mayers

The Union Army is Coming!

The 3rd NJ Volunteer Infantry encampment on the Village Green. Witness authentic living history of a Civil War Regiment, from 10 am.-4 p.m. with marching drills for the children as new recruits in “Uncle Abe’s” army.

Bob Mayers will present a program at 11:30 a.m. on The Forgotten Revolution in the Watchung Mountains. Watchung played an important role in the American Revolution! Bob, historian and author of The Forgotten Revolution, will sign books after the program.

The History of Volunteers in Watchung.

Tour the Texier Museum to see its many displays about Watchung’s History. Many local organizations will participate, emphasizing the theme of The History of Volunteerism in Watchung. See the Watchung Fire Department’s 1949 fire truck, Boy Scouts demonstrating camping skills, Girl Scouts and Brownies with vintage games and Lenape crafts and much more from the many volunteer groups that shape our community. A festive event packed with local history, food, music, crafts & games! Discover the history of the town you call home.
